

SESSION WISE TEACHING PLAN
MMS (Second Year) SEMESTER III-
Finance
2013– 2015 Batch

Program	MMS
Name of Course	International Finance
Maximum Marks	100 marks
Name of the Faculty	Mr. KR
No. of Lectures Allotted	15
Duration	3 hours each
Name of Class Representative

Signature of Faculty
Date

Lecture No.	Topics to be covered	*Topics covered	Pedagogy
1	Fundamental equilibrium relationships covered interest parity, purchasing power parity & Fisher open theorem. Foreign Exchange exposure; transaction & operating		Lecture
2	Derivatives Pricing & Analysis; foreign exchange arithmetic, foreign exchange swaps, forward contracts, financial futures & financial swaps.
3	Currency options fixed income analytic & interest rate options.
4	Capital budgeting for international projects, international cash management, international asset pricing theories, Financial Aspects of International Negotiations
5/6	Operations of foreign exchange markets, modes & mechanism of spot & forward Exchange contracts. Exchange trading & position.		Lecture
7	Syndication, Swaps, Options, Offshore banking, International Money, Capital & Foreign Exchange Markets with reference to New York, London, Tokyo, Hong Kong & Singapore

8/9	Theories of exchange rates. Purchasing power parity theory. Demand supply & elasticity in foreign exchange rate determination. Balance of Payments theory. Historical perspective on exchange rate, Gold Standard.		Lecture
10	Inter-war instability, Bretton woods, fixed exchange rates, fluctuating exchange rates Case for fixed or fluctuating exchange rates. The changing nature of world money. The rise of private world money. Euro-currencies, Euro-dollars, European Currency Unit C.R.U., their mechanics & impact,
11	International capital-flows & shocks. International debt problem - its origin, history & status. International liquidity & SDRs.
12	Innovative International Financial Products Socio-Political Issues in Strategic International Financial Management (with special reference to multi-national corporations)		Lecture
13	Case Studies and Presentations		Lecture

Reference Text

1. International Finance – Avadhani
2. Foreign Exchange Management – A.V.Rajwade
3. International Finance – Thomas J.O'Brien – Oxford Publications